tion, J. A. Churchill, shows that there are about 300 schools in the state which offer work above the eighth grade, as follows: 44 offer one year of secondary work; 65 offer two years; 26 offer three years, and 165 offer four years of high school work. Approximately 1190 teachers are employed in the secondary schools, about 70 per cent of whom are graduates of colleges or universities, while many more are graduates of technical or normal schools. Colleges and universities from every section of the United States and from Europe are represented among the high school teaching roree of the state; but by far the largest number of graduates of any single institution come from the University of Oregon, there being about 185 graduates of that institution teaching in the high schools of the state. THE BUILDING OF THE YEAR

By FRANK WALCOTT HUTT

Seak, if ye may, of them that read, Whereto the year thy hopes shall lead-Toward what proud heights, in lines of flame, The world may look to read thy name.

But know that in the deepmost vales, Where heroes strive and courage pales,

Where, face to face with common things, God's saints have known their stress and strings,

There, brave to share the lot of all, Shalt thou endure thy part or fall. There only shalt thou raze or rear Thy building of another year.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure lixative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of the Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calouel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why care the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays have with the gums. So do strong liquids,

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "duliness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lorgy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 19c and 25c per how. All druggists.

GOOD BYE, OLD YEAR.

We sadly say adieu; Thrice welcome to the new! With all its future joys and years; Forgetting blighated hopes and tears, We onward press to win the prize, Of Him that in our pathway lies.

While riseth sun, and setteth sun. Good bye old year—
We sadly farewell say;
Thrice welcome New Year's day!
Thus saith the chiming of the bells,
On hill, on plain and in the dells;
Among the Rockies' snow capped peaks,
And from the Alpines' snow checks,
While riseth sun, and setteth sun.

Good bye old year-Good bye old year—
We sadly say good bye;
For surely thou must die;
As doth the rose and dalsy white,
That brought to lovers pure delight;
While Cupid's joy doth pass away,
Displaced art thou by New Year's day,
While riseth sun and setteth sun.

Good bye old year-Again we say good bye, Not only didst thou sorrows bring, But joys from love's refreshing spring;
They grew; they thrived they passed away,
Before the coming New Year's day,
While riseth sun and setteth sun.

Good bye old year-Not as to friends, good bye—
For surely thou must die;
But them, we hope sometime to see,
If not on earth, in heaven with Thee;

Canst thou again so hope to know, Where joy and love forever flow, Nor riseth sun nor setteth sun? Time swiftly passeth by, We slowly say good bye, As friends and lovers bound in heart,

Who linger long before they part, And give to each a farewell kiss; 'Tis Cupid's fondest, greatest bliss, While riseth sun and setteth sun.

Good bye old year—
We sailly sigh good bye;
Thy death, it draweth nigh;
And we behold thy aged form,
Which hath withstood the tempest storm-

For soon or later must thou pass Away, as doth the blade of grass, While riseth sun and setteth sun.

Good bye old year-To the a last good bye, For surely thou must die; And gathered friends around thy bed; By them the copions tears are shed; By them is giv'n the parting hise; Tis mixed with sorrow and with bliss, While riseth sun and setteth sun,
